

TERMS AND CONDITIONS OF USE

STUK (Radiation and Nuclear Safety Authority, Finland) hereby grants the purchaser of PCXMC a non-exclusive licence for the use of the program. This licence permits a single user to use this program on one computer at a time. If the program will be run on more computers than one at a time, a separate licence for each is needed.

It is not allowed to reproduce the program for distribution to a third party or to modify or merge the software in whole or in part. It is allowed to make a copy of the program disk for backup purposes. If future updates of this program are produced at some later time, they will be sold separately: STUK has no obligation to furnish such revisions to any customer.

STUK disclaims all warranties relating to this program whether expressed or implied, including without limitation any implied warranties of merchantability or fitness for a particular purpose. Neither STUK nor anyone else who has been involved in the creation, production or delivery of this software shall be liable for any direct, indirect, consequential or incidental damages arising out of the use of this program, an inability to use this program, or the inaccuracy of calculated results, even if STUK has been advised of such damages. In no event shall liability by STUK for any damages ever exceed the price paid for the program regardless of the form of the claim.

These terms and conditions of use shall be interpreted in accordance with European Community and National Law in Finland and any dispute under this agreement which cannot be settled by the contracting parties out of court shall be brought before the Helsinki Court.
